GARDEN PARTY.

The garden party given by the ladies of St. Andrew's Cathedral, on Saturday afternoon, at St. Andrew's Priory, was a success in every way.
The attendance was quite large and included many prominent citizens.
The Priory grounds are large and well adapted for an affair of this kind. In the schoolroom a number of fancy articles were displayed on tables and there were many purchasers. Ice cream, cake, coffee and lemonade were served on small tables scattered through the grounds.
The Royal Hawaiian Band added to the pleasure of the afternoon by playing appropriate selections. The Sisters of the Priory did all in their power to make every one feel quite at home. The object of the party was to raise money for the purchase of a water motor to blow the organ in the Cathedral. The sum of $300 was realized which is sufficient to carry out the work.

HAWAIIAN OPERA HOUSE.

PROFESSOR CANARIS'S EXHIBITION.

Professor Canaris, the Grecian conjurer, has reason to be satisfied with his first reception by a Hawaiian audience. His first appearance was at the Opera House last Saturday night. There was no lack of applause at any stage of the exhibition. The house was comfortably full, and all seemed to watch intently each trick with the hope of discovering its secret, but the professor was too dexterous to allow of detection. Everything attempted was successfully executed, and was acknowledged by the spectators with general and vigorous clapping.
During the first part of the exhibition, the conjurer appeared in a showy Grecian costume, which is a novelty at a Honolulu gathering.
The dexterity with which the cabinet trick was done (in which the professor is bound with ropes by persons from the audience and then placed in a cabinet, and there sets himself free), was surprising.

Professor Canaris will give another show next Thursday night, on which occasion he promises a complete change of programme.

THE TALE OF THE THREE.

Mr. Olsen, one of the three sailors who came here by the French bark Cecile, from Newcastle, N. S.
W., a few weeks ago, and who, after being confined in the Station House for a number of days, were released on a writ of habeas corpus, was interviewed by a BULLETIN representative on Saturday. Mr. Olsen tells the story of the three—himself and two fellow sailors—as follows:

We had been working by the day on board the Cecile, at Newcastle, and when she was ready for sea, the captain asked if we did not want to ship to Honolulu, further saying that if we became satisfied with the vessel and he with us, we could continue. We agreed, received a month's advance, but signed no articles. Arriving at Honolulu, we told the captain that we were at our journey's end, and would like the balance of our pay. The captain said he could not pay us until the ship was discharged. We declined to assist in the discharging and were arrested on a charge of refusing duty, and taken to the Station House. This was on a Monday evening. At the Station House that evening we received a good supper, and also three good meals the next day, and breakfast Wednesday morning. We were not confined to a cell, but were allowed the liberty of the yard. On Wednesday morning after breakfast, a gentleman whom we did not know came towards us while we were walking in the yard, and stopping before me (Olsen), said, "Don't you know enough to touch your hat to me?"

I replied that I did not know him.
My shipmates now came up and the strange gentleman repeated the remark to them; they replied as I did. Whereupon the stranger snapped his fingers and turning on his heels said that we would know him soon enough. That very day orders came to confine us in a cell, and keep us on bread and water.
We then learned that this strange gentleman was the French Consul.
We were kept in the cell for nine days, on two supplies of bread and water a day. I asked an officer of the Station House to allow me to send a note to a friend in this city.
The officer denied me the favor, and if I had not succeeded in finally getting a note to this friend we would still be in prison. The friend took the matter in hand and now we are out.

THERE'S NO POCKET IN YOUR SHROUD.

As you gaze upon your Palace with its turrets raised so high.
Does it never point a lesson, reaching upwards to the sky.
Of a mansion raised above it, not built with human hands.
Of treasures yet more precious than gold or earthly lands?
As you journey to your office, amid life's busy crowd, Do you never hear the whisper, there's no pocket in your shroud?
God's steward of more riches than oft falls to human lot.
Is thy balance sheet prepared? Hath no item been forgot?
Have you handled well the talents entrusted to your care?
Have you heeded to the cry for help?
To Misery's piteous prayer?
The settling day is coming and whisper grows more loud.
Do good ere yet it is too late—There's no pocket in your shroud.

Does sorrow bless thy footsteps? Doth the widow bless thy name.
As one who in her darkest hour in gentle mercy came?
Doth struggling manhood lift its head and own thee as a friend Who nobly gave with generous heart when only asked to lend?
Be ye King or Prince or Bishop, of your wealth however proud, You cannot take it with you—There's no pocket in your shroud.
If these words, and much I doubt it, have all been left undone.
For the Laure that you've sowed and schemed, and all the dross you've won,
When cold death stands beside you, and he's coming quickly now.
Who shall raise a prayer to heaven?
Who shall cool thy aching brow?
None—Thy requiem shall be spoken in voices harsh and loud.
His money cannot save him; There's no pocket in his shroud.
Honolulu J. W. L.

Legislative Assembly.

17th DA.—June 18th.

MORNING SESSION.

The House was called to order at 10:15 a. m. by the Secretary, who announced that the President was sick, and the Vice-President being absent, it was in order to nominate a presiding officer. Noble Wight was nominated and upon taking the chair, formally opened the session.
Noble Smith was on motion elected president pro tem, and assumed the chair.

PETITIONS.

Noble Waterhouse presented a petition from one J. Goldenberg praying that the sum of $5 be refunded him for overpaid taxes. Referred to Finance Committee.

Rep. Nakaleka presented a petition from Lahaina, praying that one term of Circuit Court be held in Lahaina. Referred to the select committee appointed to consider the bill relating to the terms of court.

petition from the tax payers residing on the slopes of Punchbowl, relating to crown lands. Referred to a select committee.

Rep. Kamaoia presented a petition from Honolulu, praying that a road be made from Smith's bridge to Kamaoia, and that $600 be appropriated for that purpose. Referred to Minister of the Interior.

Rep. Pachaole presented a petition from Honolulu praying that undue haste be not used in sending lepers to Kakaako; that doctors be not confined to the use of pills only in their treatment of lepers; and that Dr. S. H. Meekapua be allowed free access to Kakaako to practise on the lepers.

Minister Thurston stated that the pills used at Kakaako are the prescriptions of Dr. Unna and have been used with decided success.
Referred to Sanitary Committee.

REPORTS OF COMMITTEES.

The committee on enrollment referred back to the House a bill relating to the desertion of married persons, as it is very incomplete; and they do not think it their place to fix it up. On motion it was referred to the introducer.

RESOLUTIONS AND BILL.

Rep. F. Brown gave notice of a bill to amend the laws relating to water privileges.

Noble Castle read a first time bill relating to liens of mechanics and material men. Referred to Printing Committee.

Minister Thurston gave notice of a bill to regulate the manufacture of poi in Honolulu.

Rep. Kamaoia read a first time bill relating to Konohiki fisheries, repealing the present law and making the fisheries free.

Rep. Brown moved to reject the bill, as it was unconstitutional. He said we have no right to take away any vested rights of people in and to property. We might as well pass a law that all lands in the Kingdom shall be free to the use of everybody.

Rep. Kamaoia said that the Konohiki fishing rights are about all that remains of the old feudal laws and should be repealed. He contended that fishes in the sea were public property and should be free to all, and not as now obtains. This law does not take any land away from any one, it only makes the taking of fish free to all. The member from Koolaula advocates the taking of the crown lands from the King and making them public, but opposes this measure; it must be that he has some clients who are konohikis.

Noble Townsend stated that he upheld the principle of the bill but thought it needed amending. He considered the vested rights of a konohiki, the vested rights of a pirate. No man makes the fishes nor does he take care of them. He asked that the bill take its regular course.

Noble Widemann said if the object of the bill was to do away with the vested rights of konohikis, we had better kill it at once. He did think that konohikis had rights that should be respected, and any one who had no respect for such rights, he had no respect for. He also said that Canada, America and all other nations, were protecting their fishing rights with men-of-war.

Noble Castle said that was an international question and had almost brought a war, but it was to decide the three miles limit.
Minister Thurston said he should vote for the rejection of this bill, as it did interfere with vested rights.
And if the Hon. Noble from Hilo has no regard for such rights, the Supreme Court will have, and no matter how many laws we may pass taking away property from individuals—for this is property, the Supreme Court will annul such laws and restore the property. He was with the Hon. member from Koolaula regarding the Crown Land, and did not consider that he was on both sides of the fence. They are distinct classes of property. The konohiki fisheries are private property, and the Crown Lands belong to the government, and can be disposed of by the Legislature.
Minister Ashford said he wished

Do not fail to call at the ARCADE and examine the Splendid Stock of Embroidered Suits at reduced prices.

to explain why he should vote for the bill. He thought that the courtesy should be extended to it of referring it to the Judiciary Committee and let them report on the unconstitutionality of the measure. He did not believe in interfering with vested rights, but thought this bill should have consideration.

Minister Green said he wished to explain his vote, he was in favor of going into this thing intelligently, and see where the fisheries could be given to the people, and what compensation could be made for them.
The question of the value of sea fisheries is an important one and should have careful consideration.

The ayes and noes were called to reject. Ayes 14—Noes 30. The bill then took its regular course.

Minister Thurston read a first time a bill to regulate the manufacture of poi in Honolulu. Referred to Printing Committee.
The Chair appointed as a Special Committee to whom was referred the petition from the residents of Punchbowl: Nobles Castle, Baldwin, Hitchock and Reps. Pachaole and Rice.

The House then adjourned until 1 p. m.

WANTED TO SEE AMERICA.

John Hiram Friedenberg, a three-quarter white youth, brother of Mrs.
Deveril, and lately clerk for Hon.
W. O. Smith, is missing. He was not home Friday night and on Saturday did not appear for business.

The young man being subject to fits, his friends and relations became greatly concerned about him, and a diligent search was instigated.
Every imaginable place was looked into, but no traces of his whereabouts could be found. Near his desk in the office of his employer, a New York weekly, full of blood-stirring adventures of young heroes was found this morning, and in his desk a letter. The letter was addressed to Hon. W. O. Smith, and said that he (Friedenberg) had gone by the barkentine S. G. Wilder; he wanted to see America.

OAHU COLLEGE.

ANNIVERSARY SERVICES AT THE CEN-TRAL UNION CHURCH.

Last evening, at the invitation of the Board of Trustees of Oahu College, Rev. Dr. Beckwith delivered an able and striking address before the students, invited guests and the general public, assembled at the Central Union Church. The Church was full. There were present in a body, the students of Oahu College, and as their guests those of Kamehameha School.

Such an occasion as this, the observance of which is now but just initiated in this community, has come to be held in high esteem in connection with educational work, in many of the communities of the United States.

It will be remembered that Dr.
Beckwith was the first President of Oahu College, and therefore his address was listened to with the more interest.

His text was Eccl. 7:12: "For wisdom is a defence, and money is a defence, but the excellency of knowledge is, that wisdom giveth life to them that have it." The sermon was a strong presentation of the thought of the text that wisdom, knowledge, stands on a vastly higher plane than money.
